PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☐ To extend the term of supervision __ years, for a total of __ years.
☒ To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

Add Special Conditions:

The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office may share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.

The defendant shall not incur new credit charges, or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.

If the judgment imposes a financial penalty, the defendant shall pay the financial penalty in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment. The defendant shall notify the court of any changes in economic circumstances that might affect the ability to pay this financial penalty.

The defendant shall not work in any type of employment without the prior approval of the probation officer.

The defendant is required to pay at least $288 per month toward his restitution. If it is determined he can pay more based on his financial circumstances changing, the Court will be notified immediately.

CAUSE

Charles E. Pircher's term of supervised release began on January 14, 2022. He is currently unemployed and seeking job opportunities. He resides with his son, Chance Pircher, and reportedly does not have any assets. In addition, he receives $1,920.00 monthly in social security benefits of which $288.00 per month is automatically deducted and applied towards the federal restitution debt.

Based on the restitution amount owed in this case, the U.S Probation Officer respectfully recommends the additional conditions of supervision be included to monitor the defendant's financial situation.
